

Royal College of General Practitioners
North East of England Faculty

General Practice: A force to be reckoned with

*What do GPs want future general practice to look like?
How can GPs positively influence their future working?*

A half-day conference based on 'The Future Direction of General Practice: A Roadmap' launched by the RCGP September 2007

Date: Tuesday 20th May 2008
Time: 1.00-5.00pm (lunch from 12.00pm)
Venue: Newcastle United Football Club
Cost: No charge—numbers limited

Keynote speakers:

- Professor Steve Field, Chair RCGP: Does General Practice have a future?
- Dr Mike Prentice, Chair Joint South of Tyne PEC: Can GPs stay independent?
- Dr Jane Roberts, GP and Senior Lecturer Primary Health Care: 21st Century General Practice

Breakout sessions on future ways of working for general practice

1. Models for collaborative working. Dr Ali Tahmassebi and Dr Graham Syers
2. The exceptional potential of the GP. Prof Greg Rubin and Prof Pali Hungin
3. Business models for future general practice. Dr Dinah Roy and Dr Stuart Findlay

To register your place contact Claire Bartram;

E mail; cbartram@rcgp.org.uk

Phone; 01388 817518

Please state if you intend to arrive for lunch and your choice of 2 (two) breakout sessions

Further details available at www.rcgpnortheast.org.uk